UNDERGRADUATE SUMMER WORKSHOP IN INTERDISCIPLINARY MIND AND BRAIN STUDIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA June 3 – 16, 2018

Language Science & Technology
Social and Behavioral Science

As a participant, you can:
- Hear lectures from distinguished researchers in social and decision sciences and language science and technology
- Participate in labs and lab tours involving some of the latest technologies and research methods
- Participate in panel discussions on the future of interdisciplinary mind and brain studies, as well as career and professional development in these fields.

You should apply if:
- You have a strong interest in social and decision sciences and/or language science
- You are currently an enrolled undergraduate at any university or college
- You are thinking about applying to graduate school
- You are available to attend the entire program

Relevant course experience is desired, but not required. Students from underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Non-US citizens are eligible for our program, but US visa regulations apply for all non-citizens.
