

Who is Caring for the Care Partners in Greater Philadelphia? Resources for People Living With Dementia and for Their Care Partners March 25, 2024 ~ 1:00pm

Join us in person or online for this special panel discussion co-hosted by ARTZ Philadelphia and Center in the Park, addressing the question “Who is caring for the care partners in Greater Philadelphia?” Panelists will provide valuable information about resources available to people living with dementia and their care partners from the state’s Department of Aging, the city’s Corporation for Aging, and in specific neighborhoods. They will also answer as many of your questions as possible . If you are living with dementia or are a care partner, you are not alone!

This event is free of charge. However, in-person seating at Center in the Park is limited, so please register as soon as possible on www.artzphilly.org or contact Center in the Park’s Program Office. The event will also be live streamed via FB Live.

To register, visit www.artzphilly.org or contact Center in the Park's Program Office at (215) 848-7722 ext. 225.
